

The Time is NOW

NOW is the time to begin to learn about HOUSE CHURCHES or similar alternatives to traditional church services, many of which will not sustain us in the Day to come.

Attitudes toward faith that is based on the exclusiveness of Jesus Christ as the way to heaven, and toward the Bible as the final authority in all things including human morality, are changing rapidly. Laws, Executive orders and policies will soon reflect that cultural shift and will make it costly to openly live as a true follower of Jesus.

I'm sure you already know that today's chaos in Washington is more spirit-based than political, but I'm not sure we realize how quickly and how deeply that will change things around us. Frankly, I suspect it will happen even faster than I picture myself! We may think of 2020 as "the year of Covid-19," but we'll probably look back on 2021 as "the year of change."

If we think that "the mask" has been an issue in the church, just wait for what's coming up. Thinking that the institutional church as we know it can support the weight of things soon to come is like thinking that a bamboo bridge can support a loaded semi.

I hope you are fortunate enough to be in a church where you are being warned about what the declared agenda of our new administration means for us. Otherwise, it doesn't matter how exciting your "worship" is, or how "successful" this or that program is, or how fast your church is growing – if your leadership isn't relevant to our Day you must take action NOW.

YOU MUST BE in some setting where these realities are accepted and discussed, and reasoned plans being made to respond. It can be part of your institutional church (if allowed), or alongside, or altogether separate from, but it MUST be. YOU MUST BE in relationship with likeminded believers, either formally or informally, whom you can partner with through the trials to come.

House churches are a Biblical concept, and there are other good forms. Consider Romans 16:5, 1 Cor. 16:19 and Col. 4:15. The small book, SIMPLE HOUSE CHURCH REVOLUTION, is packed with wisdom and helpful info and you can read/download/print it free from this site. Do it. PLEASE do it!
