I don't know how you're thinking about world events, but I highly suspect that you are more unsettled than your Sunday School class is ready to talk about. And maybe even more than you will admit to yourself.

Every issue on the agenda of the Left and the Radical Left is merging into one force in response to the anticipated SCOTUS ruling on abortion.

The blending of righteous concerns into demonic interests deceives even well-intentioned believers. Pro-Choice agenda is driven by blinding emotional outrage; its irrationality offers no boundaries in destructive actions it will take to achieve its ends; it reaches from the top to the bottom of our socio-economic strata; it is politically empowered and bridges from the far left to the right of center of the religious and political, liberal/conservative spectrums; and it has boundless financial resources. Phew!

This reality, blended with the international instability from Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the many dynamics it has spawned in the political, social and economic spheres, is mind-boggling. And serious.

More on this in the next post, but in the meantime PLEASE listen to Levi Lusko's "NOT MY IDEA OF A GOOD TIME." You will hear layer upon layer of insight, perspective, teaching, correction and encouragement, in his unique and sometimes entertaining style. www.freshlife.church/messages/thank-you-next/147

I promise - you have never heard a more energizing message on Romans 8:28. You need these truths in your life now, and will increasingly in the days to come.

You can also download it as a video or just audio. I venture that many of you will play it multiple times, as I have.
