

25-20, PEACE IN THE STORM

Yesterday was a momentous day in world history. I was on the road, so I listened to the news with the play-by-play of President Trump's visits to Israel and Egypt. I love people, and I love the Church, and it gave rise to a lot within me regarding our future here on the earth. I went to bed in good time and was awakened quite early to come to my quiet spot and listen, and write. This is what came, and I urge you to simply judge it according to the Word of God.

"There is that which is known to man, and that which is not, but it is all the same to Me because I see all things. Nothing is hidden to Me.

It is Mine to know all and to see all and to use all as servants to my plan and purpose; it is yours to look to me and to set your eyes upon Me and to follow Me. It is as I said while on the earth, 'Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you.'

If you know Me you will know all that is needed to walk well in these Last Days. There is much yet to come, including sorrow, but there is always hope and life for those who chose to seek Me and My way and to walk in it. My saying, 'I will never leave you or forsake you' is still true and is all you need to know.

I speak peace to you my child. I speak peace in the storm. I speak peace to you when your boat is about to sink in the storm. Rest, my son. Rest, my daughter, for the waves that are crashing over you are only to test you and to draw your heart toward Me as your Safe Place. If you seek me in that time I will stand up and quiet the storm even as I did for my other disciples, and you will be safe. Only trust Me.

All that is happening in every realm of your world, including that which is unseen to you, is according to plan. All is servant to Me and if you will get into the boat with Me all will be well with you. Yes, come to Me and abide in Me. I am Light and no darkness overcomes Me but it depends on your willingness to look to Me and to trust Me even in the storm – and storms there will be."
